Writing Alternate Currents

Directions: The ending of Finn shows a man destroyed by his own choices. But literature also allows us to ask, “What if?” Your task is to reimagine Finn’s ending in a way that changes the meaning of the story. Follow the steps below.

Brainstorming Choices

Underline or highlight which type of alternate ending you want to create:

- Redemption (Finn realizes his wrongs and tries to change)
- Revenge (Finn harms or is harmed in a final act of violence)
- Escape (Finn leaves behind Huck and the town)
- Tragic Twist (something unexpected deepens the darkness)
- Other: _____

Outline Your Ending

Complete the prompts below before writing:

1. Where does the scene take place? _____
2. What happens to Finn? _____
3. How does Huck react or respond? _____
4. What lesson or message does this new ending deliver? _____
