

Name _____

Respecting Spaces

Directions: Read each question carefully. Circle the letter of the best answer (A-D) that shows appropriate social behavior for the situation.

1. You are in class and a teacher is speaking to the group. What is the best thing to do?
  - A. Talk quietly to your friend
  - B. Check your phone
  - C. Walk out of the room
  - D. Listen and make eye contact
2. At work, your coworker is sitting close to you while typing. How can you respect their personal space?
  - A. Lean over their shoulder to see the screen
  - B. Move your chair closer so you can talk
  - C. Give them a few feet of space and wait until they are done
  - D. Touch their arm to get attention
3. You see a group of people talking at a community event. You want to join the conversation. What should you do first?
  - A. Stand nearby, listen for a pause, and say hello
  - B. Jump into the middle of the group
  - C. Shout a joke to get noticed
  - D. Ignore them and walk away
4. Your friend is upset after a disagreement. What is the best response?
  - A. Tell them to calm down immediately
  - B. Give them space and offer to talk when they are ready
  - C. Keep asking questions until they answer
  - D. Walk away laughing

Respecting Spaces

5. During a class discussion, someone shares an opinion you disagree with. What is a respectful way to respond?
  - A. Roll your eyes
  - B. Interrupt and say they are wrong
  - C. Wait your turn and share your thoughts calmly
  - D. Start a side conversation about something else
6. You are in a workplace meeting and have a new idea. What is the right way to share it?
  - A. Interrupt the speaker to say it right away
  - B. Blurt it out even if others are talking
  - C. Text your coworker about it during the meeting
  - D. Wait for your turn and then explain clearly
7. In the community gym, a person you don't know starts a friendly chat. What is a good way to respond?
  - A. Smile, answer politely, and keep your distance
  - B. Ignore them completely
  - C. Ask personal questions right away
  - D. Follow them around to keep talking
8. During a group project, one person is doing most of the work. What should you do?
  - A. Let them finish everything since they seem fine
  - B. Offer to help with a task and thank them for their effort
  - C. Criticize how they are doing it
  - D. Walk away and start your own project