

Name _____

Formal Time Transformations

Directions: Rewrite each informal sentence below in a more formal and academic tone. Focus on using the correct preposition (for or since) and elevating word choice and structure. Maintain the original meaning while improving tone and precision.

1. I've been waiting for ages to hear back about my application.

2. She's worked at that store since forever, it feels like.

3. We've been studying for hours, and my brain is tired.

4. He's lived in that apartment since he was a kid.

5. I've been playing this video game for way too long.

6. They've known each other since middle school.

7. I've been worrying about the results for days now.

8. My cousin has been part of the debate club since last year.

9. We've been planning this trip for months.

10. She's had the same phone since freshman year.
