Timewoven Tales

Directions: Write two short narratives below. In each one, tell a story only through time expressions and details using for and since. Each story should show a clear passage of time or a clear starting point. Keep each story around 5-7 sentences. Be creative and make sure your use of for and since is accurate and meaningful.

Part 1: Duration Story (use "for") → Write a brief narrative that shows something happening over a span of time.

Example start: "I have trained for three months to prepare for the marathon..."

Part 2: Starting Point Story (use "since") → Write a brief narrative that focuses on when something began.

Example start: "I have lived in this city since I was ten..."
