Diary of Resistance

Directions: Imagine you are Frederick Douglass at a pivotal moment in his life. Choose one of the moments below and write a diary entry from his perspective.

- Moment A: Witnessing Aunt Hester being whipped (childhood trauma).
- Moment B: Learning that Mrs. Auld has stopped teaching him to read (denial of knowledge).
- Moment C: The fight with Mr. Covey (resisting a “slave-breaker”).
- Moment D: Escaping to the North (achieving freedom).
