Friendship Reflections Answer Key

Answers will vary but should demonstrate understanding of kindness, honesty, and loyalty in friendships.

- Students should describe positive, respectful actions toward friends.
- Writing should show empathy, understanding, and awareness of others' feelings.

Teacher's Guide:

- Encourage students to discuss the meaning of loyalty, honesty, and kindness before writing to activate prior knowledge.
- Offer sentence starters such as "One way I show kindness is..." or "Being honest means..." for learners who need support.
- Allow oral dictation or drawing responses for students who struggle with writing.
- Extension: Compile student responses into a class "Friendship Promise Book" to display shared ideas about being a good friend.
