

Name _____

Fixing Friendship Moments

Directions: Read each short scenario about a friendship problem. Choose the best answer (A-D) to show how you would fix it kindly.

1. During art class, Sam kept interrupting while Alex was trying to share an idea for the group project. What should Sam do?
A. Say sorry and listen to Alex's idea.
B. Keep talking until Alex gives up.
C. Tell Alex their idea is not good.
D. Leave the group and work alone.
2. Maya bragged to her friends about getting the highest score on the quiz. Her friends looked hurt. What could Maya do next?
A. Keep talking about how smart she is.
B. Say she is better than everyone else.
C. Say sorry and tell her friends they all worked hard.
D. Laugh and walk away.
3. Tyler ignored his friend when he saw him sitting alone at lunch. Later, he felt bad. What is the best way to fix this?
A. Pretend nothing happened.
B. Sit with him the next day and say hello.
C. Tell others not to sit with him.
D. Avoid him again to skip the talk.
4. Zoe borrowed her friend's book but forgot to give it back for a week. What should Zoe do?
A. Keep the book since her friend did not ask for it.
B. Return it and thank her friend for letting her borrow it.
C. Blame her little brother for losing it.
D. Hide it in her backpack.
5. Leo got upset when his friend did not pick him for the kickball team and yelled at him. What is the kind way to fix this?
A. Ignore him for the rest of the week.
B. Keep yelling so he knows you are mad.
C. Tell others to stop playing with him.
D. Say sorry and talk calmly about how he felt.