Connecting Through Friendship

Directions: Friendship is an important theme in Frog and Toad Are Friends. Use the prompts below to write about how friendship is shown in the story and in your own life. Write at least one full paragraph for each section.

1. How do Frog and Toad show they are good friends to each other? Write about at least two examples from the story. Explain what these actions show about friendship.

2. How do you see friendship in your own life? Write about at least one friend and what makes your friendship special. Explain why friendship is important to you.

Creative Task: Write a short poem (4-6 lines) about friendship. It can be serious or playful, but it should connect to the ideas you wrote above.
