

Continue The Camping Trip Answer Key

Completed Story:

Next weekend, my family and I will be going on a camping trip in the mountains. By Saturday morning, we will be hiking along the forest trails and enjoying the fresh air. At noon, we will be cooking our lunch over a small campfire. While my parents will be setting up the tent, my brother and I will be collecting firewood.

In the evening, everyone will be sitting around the campfire, telling stories and singing songs. At the same time, the stars will be shining brightly in the sky above us. By midnight, we will be sleeping in our sleeping bags, listening to the sounds of the forest. It will be an amazing trip!

Teacher Notes / Guide

- Purpose: This activity helps students practice the future continuous tense in a connected, meaningful context instead of isolated sentences.
- Tip: Have students highlight or underline each completed verb phrase to visually reinforce the structure "will be + verb-ing."
- Extension Activity: Ask students to write their own short paragraph about what they will be doing during their next holiday or weekend using at least 5 future continuous verbs.
