

Name _____

Pick the Progress

Directions: Read each question carefully. Circle the letter (A-D) that correctly uses the future continuous tense.

1. Which sentence shows the future continuous correctly?
 - A) She will dance at the party tomorrow night.
 - B) She will be dancing at the party tomorrow night.
 - C) She dancing at the party tomorrow night.
 - D) She will dances at the party tomorrow night.
2. Choose the sentence that uses the future continuous tense:
 - A) We are study for our exam tomorrow evening.
 - B) We will studies for our exam tomorrow evening.
 - C) We will study for our exam tomorrow evening.
 - D) We will be studying for our exam tomorrow evening.
3. Which is the correct use of the future continuous?
 - A) At this time next week, I will be traveling to Japan.
 - B) At this time next week, I travels to Japan.
 - C) At this time next week, I traveling to Japan.
 - D) At this time next week, I will traveled to Japan.
4. Select the correct future continuous form:
 - A) The children will be playing outside when you arrive.
 - B) The children plays outside when you arrive.
 - C) The children will playing outside when you arrive.
 - D) The children will played outside when you arrive.
5. Which sentence is correct?
 - A) By 9 a.m. tomorrow, the workers will work in the factory.
 - B) By 9 a.m. tomorrow, the workers will working in the factory.
 - C) By 9 a.m. tomorrow, the workers will be working in the factory.
 - D) By 9 a.m. tomorrow, the workers works in the factory.
6. Which sentence uses future continuous tense correctly?
 - A) The orchestra will perform at the concert tomorrow night.
 - B) The orchestra will be performing at the concert tomorrow night.
 - C) The orchestra performing at the concert tomorrow night.
 - D) The orchestra will performed at the concert tomorrow night.