

Name _____

Will Have Been Predicting

Directions: Look at each scenario below. Write a prediction using the future perfect continuous tense.

1. It is 10:00 p.m. The students started studying at 2:00 p.m. (study)

2. By next summer, Emma will have lived in Paris for 4 years. (live)

3. The concert starts at 8:00 p.m. The fans arrived at 3:00 p.m. (wait)

4. The builders began repairing the road in January. By December, the project will still not be finished. (repair)

5. By the time we reach the mountain peak tomorrow, we will have been hiking all day. (hike)

6. Sarah started practicing piano in the morning. When her lesson ends at 5:00 p.m., she will still be at the piano. (practice)

7. By the end of the year, the scientists will continue their research that started five years ago. (research)

8. Next Friday marks one month since the new shop opened. (work)

9. By midnight, she _____ for six hours. (drive)

10. When the concert ends, the band _____ on stage for two hours. (perform)
