

Name _____

Continuous Transformations

Directions: Each sentence below is written in the present perfect tense or future perfect tense. Rewrite the sentence so it expresses the same idea in the future perfect continuous tense. Remember:
Formula → Subject + will have been + verb(-ing) + object/time marker

From Present Perfect to Future Perfect Continuous

1. She has worked at the library for three years.

2. I have studied English for ten months.

3. They have lived in this city since 2010.

4. He has practiced the guitar for two hours.

5. We have waited here for thirty minutes.

From Future Perfect to Future Perfect Continuous

6. By next week, she will have finished her training.

7. By tomorrow, I will have completed this book.

8. By the end of the month, they will have painted the house.

9. By midnight, he will have written his essay.

10. By next summer, we will have traveled to five countries.
