Teacher Notes:

- The future perfect tense shows an action that will be completed before another future event or time.
- Common markers: by the time..., before..., by tomorrow, by next week, by the end of...
- Structure reminder: will have + past participle.
- Encourage students to highlight the time expressions that trigger the future perfect tense.
- Extension: Have students write their own future perfect sentences about their personal goals (e.g., "By next year, I will have joined the school play.").
