

Name _____

Error-Free Future

Directions: Each sentence below is meant to use the future perfect tense, but it contains a mistake. Some have the wrong verb form, others are missing words, and some use the wrong time expression. Circle the mistake. Then, rewrite the sentence correctly in the future perfect tense.

1. By the time you arrives, I will have cook dinner.

2. She will have writes the essay before Friday.

3. They will has completed the project by tomorrow morning.

4. At this time next year, we will finished the new house.

5. He will have saw the movie twice before it leaves theaters.

6. You will have eaten lunch by the time the bell ring.

7. The students will have studies hard before the exam start.

8. By midnight, the chef will preparing fifty desserts.

9. Our family will have visit Paris three times by then.

10. I will has completed all the levels in the game by tonight.
