

Name _____

"Story Trailer" Match-Up

Instructions: Below are 8 story trailers. Each trailer gives you a short glimpse into a story. Your job is to match each trailer (1–8) to the correct genre (A–H) from the Genre List. Write the letter of the genre next to the trailer number.

Story Trailers

_____ 1. A young girl discovers an ancient portal beneath her school and is whisked away to a kingdom ruled by dragons and spellcasters.

_____ 2. Detective Marla Chase follows a trail of cryptic clues left by an elusive thief who always strikes during thunderstorms.

_____ 3. Lena writes in her journal as she hides in the attic from soldiers during a great war, capturing the fear and courage of her time.

_____ 4. Aliens land in Central Park, offering peace and technology... until Earth's governments refuse their terms.

_____ 5. When Tom wakes up, he's the only person left in his entire town—except for a shadow that follows him everywhere.

_____ 6. This hilarious collection of jokes, riddles, and silly poems will have readers giggling from start to finish.

_____ 7. The inspiring story of real-life astronaut Mae Jemison and how she reached the stars with determination and intelligence.

_____ 8. Max is late to school—again. But this time, he has the wildest excuse ever: a time machine mishap with dinosaurs involved.

Genre List

A. Historical Fiction

E. Biography

B. Science Fiction

F. Horror

C. Mystery

G. Humor

D. Fantasy

H. Adventure