

Name _____

Genre Detective Mission

Mission Briefing: You've been recruited by the Literary Investigation Agency (LIA) to analyze and classify mysterious text fragments. Each Case File below contains a brief excerpt or summary of a text. You must choose the correct genre from the four options provided. Mark the correct letter next to each Case File.

Case Files:

1. Case File #137-A - The giant eagle swooped low as Kira clutched her firestaff, chanting the spell that would awaken the ancient stone guardian.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Science Fiction   B) Realistic Fiction   C) Fantasy   D) Informational

2. Case File #205-C - This book explains the difference between weather and climate, describes global warming, and includes diagrams of Earth's atmosphere.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Informational   B) Poetry   C) Mystery   D) Drama

3. Case File #042-B - "It's just a legend," Mateo said. "No one's ever escaped the maze." But as the walls shifted behind him, he realized the stories might be true.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Horror   B) Adventure   C) Biography   D) Historical Fiction

4. Case File #519-D - Follow the life of Malala Yousafzai, from her early childhood in Pakistan to her courageous stand for girls' education and global peace.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Realistic Fiction   B) Poetry   C) Fantasy   D) Biography

5. Case File #684-T - A space crew discovers a mysterious signal coming from the dark side of the moon. What they find changes humanity's future forever.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Historical Fiction   B) Science Fiction   C) Mystery   D) Humor

6. Case File #918-M - "The code was in the book all along," Lily whispered. "We just didn't know which page to flip." Suddenly, the pieces began to fall into place.

What genre best fits this text?

A) Mystery   B) Informational   C) Poetry   D) Realistic Fiction