A Saturday Plan

Last Saturday, Mia decided going to the park with her friends. She wanted playing basketball, but the others suggested to ride their bikes instead. Mia agreed joining the bike ride because she enjoys to spend time outdoors.

On the way, her brother promised helping her fix her bike if it broke.

Luckily, nothing went wrong, so they finished to ride the trail without problems.

Afterward, Mia's friend admitted to forget bringing snacks, so they all laughed.

Mia hopes seeing her friends again next weekend, and she plans to invite them to her house for a movie night. She can't stand to be bored, so she always looks forward to plan fun activities with them.
