

Name _____

Pick The Best Version

Directions: Each sentence below has three versions using get, got, or gotten. Read carefully and circle the letter of the one that sounds natural and uses the verb correctly.

1. a. I get a cold last winter.
b. I got a cold last winter.
c. I gotten a cold last winter.
2. a. She has gotten really good at playing the piano.
b. She got really good at playing the piano last night.
c. She get really good at playing the piano yesterday.
3. a. We have got all our homework done already.
b. We have gotten all our homework done already.
c. We get all our homework done already.
4. a. He gotten home before dinner every day.
b. He get home before dinner every day.
c. He gets home before dinner every day.
5. a. The kids have gotten taller since summer.
b. The kids got taller since summer.
c. The kids get taller since summer.
6. a. I gotten nervous before my speech yesterday.
b. I got nervous before my speech yesterday.
c. I get nervous before my speech yesterday.
7. a. We have get used to waking up early.
b. We have got used to waking up early.
c. We have gotten used to waking up early.
8. a. They gotten in trouble for talking in class.
b. They get in trouble for talking in class.
c. They got in trouble for talking in class.
9. a. My dog has gotten so much faster this year.
b. My dog got so much faster this year.
c. My dog get so much faster this year.
10. a. I get a text from my friend just now.
b. I got a text from my friend just now.
c. I gotten a text from my friend just now.