Teacher's Guide:

- Before the activity, discuss the difference between sincere praise and hidden motives using simple examples.
- Encourage students to look for clues of honesty or personal gain in each sentence.
- For differentiation, provide visual cue cards with examples labeled "Kind" or "Tricky."
- Extension idea: Have students write two of their own examples of genuine compliments and two of manipulative ones, then share and discuss as a class.
