

Name _____

Sincere Words Journal

Directions: Read each poorly worded or backhanded compliment. Rewrite it in a way that sounds kind, sincere, and respectful.

1. "You're actually pretty good at that for once."

2. "You're smart when you really try."

3. "I didn't expect your drawing to look that nice."

4. "That outfit looks better than what you usually wear."

5. "You're good at math, unlike me."

6. "Your speech wasn't as bad as I thought it would be."

7. "You did way better than I expected."

8. "I guess you're getting better at this."

9. "You actually made a good point for once."

10. "That picture isn't as messy as your last one."
