

Name _____

Speaking Kindly

Directions: Read each situation carefully. Choose the best and kindest compliment from the four choices.

1. Your classmate just finished reading a story aloud.
 - A. "You read too slowly."
 - B. "I could have read it better."
 - C. "That story was boring."
 - D. "You tried your best, and your voice was clear!"
2. A friend drew a picture of a tree during art class.
 - A. "It doesn't look like a tree."
 - B. "Your drawing is messy."
 - C. "I like how you made the leaves bright green!"
 - D. "You used too much paint."
3. Your partner helped clean up after lunch.
 - A. "You didn't do much."
 - B. "You're always so helpful!"
 - C. "You forgot to wipe the table."
 - D. "I didn't need help."
4. A classmate played a new song on the piano.
 - A. "I like how you kept trying even when it was tricky!"
 - B. "That was too loud."
 - C. "You missed some notes."
 - D. "That song is weird."
5. Your friend brought a homemade snack for everyone.
 - A. "You made too little."
 - B. "It looks okay, I guess."
 - C. "Wow, you're so thoughtful to share!"
 - D. "I don't like that flavor."
6. A classmate helped you pick up your dropped pencils.
 - A. "I could've done it myself."
 - B. "You're always so kind to help."
 - C. "You only picked up one."
 - D. "You're slow at helping."