Directions: Read the passage carefully. Identify the bold words that may be unfamiliar or important to understanding the text. Use context clues and a dictionary (if needed) to create a mini-glossary of at least 4-6 words from the passage. For each glossary word, write: the word, its part of speech (noun, verb, adjective, etc.), and a short definition.

On Saturday, Jamal attended a community festival celebrating local traditions. He watched a lively parade with colorful costumes and marching bands. At one booth, he sampled a sweet pastry that reminded him of a family recipe. Later, Jamal visited an art exhibit, where paintings showed scenes of the town's history. He admired the craftsmanship of wooden carvings that displayed incredible detail. Before leaving, Jamal wrote a short reflection in his journal about the value of culture and creativity in everyday life.
