

Name _____

Bedtime Scene

Directions: In Goodnight Moon, the little bunny's bedroom is described with many objects that make it cozy and familiar. Draw the room in the space below as you imagine it based on the story.

Label at least 6 objects in your drawing (write the word next to the object). There is a word bank below to help you with your labels. Then, write two sentences under your drawing explaining why the bedroom setting is important in a bedtime story.
