Getting To School

Directions: Read the passage about two classmates. Then fill in the chart to show how their mornings are the same and different.

Sam and Lily are classmates. Sam rides the bus to school every morning. He waits at the bus stop with other kids. The bus driver greets him, and soon he is on his way.

Lily walks to school with her mom. They pass the library and wave to the crossing guard. She enjoys looking at flowers along the sidewalk.

Both Sam and Lily arrive at school on time, ready to learn.
