

Name _____

Misuse To Accurate

Directions: Each sentence contains one advanced word that is misused. Replace the bolded word with a more accurate academic term. Rewrite only the corrected word on the line.

1. The researcher attempted to elucidate the participants into agreeing with the proposed framework.

2. The article implies several statistics to support its conclusion, but none are fully analyzed.

3. The committee's decision was arbitrary, following months of documented debate and review.

4. The author exacerbates that the findings should be interpreted with caution.

5. The policy was implemented in a sporadic manner, following a clearly defined rollout schedule.

6. The speaker's argument was redundant by recent empirical studies in the field.

7. The theory was widely accepted due to its ambiguous explanatory power.

8. The editor requested condensed evidence to clarify the author's central claim.
