Cookie Steps

Directions: Read the short story about Maya and her grandmother. Look at the events listed below the story. Place the events in the correct order using the flow chart.

Maya visited her grandmother on Saturday afternoon. Together, they mixed flour, sugar, and eggs in a big bowl. Grandma showed Maya how to roll the dough into small balls. They placed the dough on a baking tray and slid it into the oven. When the cookies were ready, Maya and Grandma enjoyed them with a glass of milk.
