3. They rolled the dough into small balls.
4. They put the tray in the oven.
5. They ate the cookies with milk.

Teacher Notes:

- Remind students to pay attention to time words like first, then, when, and finally (even if not stated directly, the order is clear).
- Encourage them to reread the story slowly to catch the natural order of actions.
- This exercise builds understanding of story structure: beginning, middle, and end.
