

Name _____

Word Repair Shop

Directions: Each sentence has one misused word. Circle the wrong word, then rewrite the sentence using the correct word.

1. I was elated when my phone battery died during the group project.

2. The librarian asked us to whisper, so we started talking as loudly as possible.

3. The coach said our teamwork was terrible, and everyone smiled proudly at the compliment.

4. We postponed the meeting by moving it earlier in the day.

5. The directions were vague, so I followed them easily without any questions.

6. Maya was reluctant to try the new food; she eagerly reached for a second helping.

7. The scientist made a conclusion by asking questions and gathering information.

8. The desert air felt humid, and my skin cracked from how dry it was.

9. The class was silent, so it was hard to hear the constant chatter.

10. I need to borrow you my notes because you missed yesterday's lesson.
