

Name _____

The Better Word

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Choose the better word from the two options to complete the sentence accurately and clearly. Circle or underline your choice.

1. The scientist reached a (conclusion / opinion) after analyzing months of data.
2. The instructions were (clear / obvious) enough for new students to follow without help.
3. The author used (specific / detailed) examples to explain the main idea of the article.
4. During the discussion, she remained (calm / quiet) even when others disagreed.
5. The documentary presented a (balanced / fair) view of the issue by including multiple perspectives.
6. The team was (eager / interested) to begin the project after hearing the expectations.
7. The graph (shows / proves) a steady increase in temperature over time.
8. He felt (nervous / terrified) before giving his short presentation to the class.
9. The speaker made a (strong / powerful) argument supported by evidence and examples.
10. The rule applies to (all / every) student who participates in the activity.
11. The article provided (background / history) information to help readers understand the topic.
12. Her explanation was (accurate / correct) based on the facts in the text.
13. The schedule change was (unexpected / surprising) for most students that morning.
14. The class discussion became (intense / serious) as students debated the issue.
15. The experiment was (successful / effective) because it produced reliable results.