

Name _____

Context Fixers

Directions: Each sentence uses a word that is awkward or inaccurate for the context. Rewrite the sentence using a better vocabulary word so the meaning is clear and correct.

1. The coach whispered instructions across the noisy gym so everyone could hear.

2. The article tried to prove the topic by listing many opinions without evidence.

3. The scientist made a guess after carefully studying the data for months.

4. During the fire drill, students were asked to wander quietly to the exit in a straight line.

5. The documentary was funny in tone, explaining serious environmental problems.

6. The instructions were hidden, so many students could not follow the steps.

7. The author celebrated the causes of the conflict by explaining what led to it.

8. She felt terrified about presenting her project because she was slightly unsure.

9. The graph argued that temperatures have risen steadily over time.

10. The teacher ordered students to consider multiple perspectives in their essays.
