Root Clue Fiction

Directions: Read the short literary excerpt. Then identify the Greek or Latin root in each bold word, and match it to its meaning.

The old theater felt invisible from the street, tucked behind newer buildings and loud storefronts. Inside, the manager spoke with precaution, as if every footstep might wake the past. A cracked mirror reflected a strange distortion of the audience, stretching faces into unfamiliar shapes. Still, the actors performed with resilience, recovering after mistakes with calm control. When the final curtain fell, a hush settled over the room like a shared revelation.

- A. twist
