

Name _____

Gratitude Choices

Directions: Read each short scenario carefully. Decide if the behavior shows gratitude shown, gratitude missed, or a neutral response. Then explain your reasoning in one sentence.

1. After a group project, Jordan tells his teammates, "Thanks for helping me finish that presentation. I couldn't have done it without you." (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

2. During lunch, Lila's friend gives her a snack, and Lila eats it without saying anything. (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

3. Marcus's teacher compliments his effort on an essay. He smiles politely but doesn't say anything in return. (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

4. When Ava's brother helps her carry her bags, she says, "You always look out for me. Thanks!" (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

5. Jamie's friend lends her a pencil, and she replies, "You should have remembered to bring your own." (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

6. When asked about his weekend, Eli says, "It was fine, just the usual stuff." (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____

7. After missing a ride home, Sarah's friend waits with her until her parents arrive. Sarah tells her, "That meant a lot to me." (shown / missed / neutral)

Reason: _____