Nick's Perspective

1. The Reunion:
"Today felt surreal. Seeing Gatsby tremble like a schoolboy before Daisy reminded me how fragile dreams are. I felt both honored and uncomfortable playing host to such a delicate moment. Perhaps hope can be reborn, but I wonder at what cost."
2. The Confrontation:
"The Plaza Hotel boiled with tension. Tom's arrogance filled the room, yet Gatsby clung desperately to his dream. I pitied Gatsby, but I also feared he could not win against time and entrenched privilege."
3. The Aftermath:
"Gatsby is gone, and Daisy has vanished into her cocoon of wealth with Tom. The silence of his empty mansion weighs on me. I feel disgusted by their carelessness, but I also mourn the passing of Gatsby's impossible hope."

Daisy's Perspective

1. The Reunion:
"Seeing Jay again after all these years shook me to my core. For a moment, I believed I could turn back time. Yet Tom still looms in my mind, and I wonder if happiness can ever truly belong to me."
2. The Confrontation:
"I felt like a prize being fought over, not a person. Tom's fury frightened me, but Gatsby's insistence frightened me more. I could not choose the past, though my heart still aches for it."
3. The Aftermath:
"Jay is gone, and I cannot even whisper his name. It is easier to retreat into silence, into comfort, into Tom's world. My heart may always carry regret, but regret is easier to hide than scandal."
