

Name _____

First Day Hellos Answer Key

1. He felt nervous.
2. She told him to smile because a smile is a good way to say hello.
3. He introduced himself to Zoe.
4. He said, "Good morning, Mrs. Lewis."
5. His greeting helped him make friends and feel comfortable.
6. Answers will vary (e.g., "Hi, my name is ____, " "Nice to meet you").

Teacher's Guide:

- Discuss how greetings show respect and confidence in new settings.
- For differentiation, read the passage aloud and pause to model tone and expression during greetings.
- Encourage students to act out the story using simple role-play to practice friendly introductions.
- As an extension, ask students to write or draw their own "first impression" story about meeting someone new.
