Flame's Perspective

Directions: Choose one object - the menorah, the oil jar, or a single candle - and retell the Hanukkah story from its point of view. Describe what it "saw," "felt," and "experienced" as the events unfolded. Use sensory details and emotions to bring your story to life.

Writing Prompts (Choose One):

1. The Menorah Speaks: Describe the moment you were lit again after years of darkness. What did the light mean to those who watched?
2. The Oil Jar's Secret: Tell how it felt to be nearly empty but still able to burn for eight nights. What message would you share about hope?
3. The Candle's Tale: Describe the joy of passing your flame to the others. What did you learn about unity and perseverance?

Write at least one well-developed paragraph (5-7 sentences) showing the emotions, sights, and meaning behind the miracle.
