

Name _____

Double Meaning Mysteries

Directions: Read each example riddle to see how one word can have two meanings. Then, write your own riddles that describe both meanings of a homograph. Be creative — make your clues clever, funny, or tricky!

Example Riddles:

1. I can mean to break apart or a pause in a play — what am I?
→ Answer: break
2. I can be a small creature that flies or a hit in baseball — what am I?
→ Answer: bat
3. I can fall from your eye or be something you rip — what am I?
→ Answer: tear

Now You Try! Write your own riddles below. Use the examples above as inspiration. Think of a word with two meanings, describe each meaning with clues, and end with “What am I?”

1. _____

What am I? _____

2. _____

What am I? _____

3. _____

What am I? _____

4. _____

What am I? _____

5. _____

What am I? _____