

Name _____

Double Duty Words

Directions: Read the story carefully. Each blank needs the correct homograph to make sense in the story. Use context clues to decide which meaning fits best. Write the correct word in each blank.

bow

rock

row

lead

watch

duck

park

bass

Ella loved going to the park after school. One afternoon, she sat on a wooden (1) _____ to watch the ducks. Suddenly, she saw one duck (2) _____ quickly as a ball splashed into the pond! Her little brother ran to throw another (3) _____, but Ella told him not to, since the ducks needed peace and quiet.

They decided to fly a kite instead. As they held the string, a strong wind began to (4) _____ the trees. The kite soared higher until it started to (5) _____ like a tiny flag in the sky. When it was time to leave, their dad said, "Let's (6) _____ the car before it gets dark."

On the drive home, Ella looked at her wrist (7) _____ to check the time. "It's almost dinner," she said, smiling. Her brother nodded and said, "I'll help you set the table when we get home—just don't make me eat another (8) _____ fish sandwich!"