

Name _____

Prediction with Context Change

Directions - Read each short sentence starter. First, write what you think comes next without any extra context. Then read the same starter with a new context (like "In a fairy tale" or "In the news"). Notice how your prediction changes.

Example - Starter: The girl opened the ____

Without context: door

With context ("In a bakery"): oven

1. Starter: The prince held the ____

Without context: _____

With context (In a science lab): _____

2. Starter: The player kicked the ____

Without context: _____

With context (In a video game): _____

3. Starter: The teacher wrote on the ____

Without context: _____

With context (At a beach party): _____

4. Starter: The child found a ____

Without context: _____

With context (In a fairy tale): _____

5. Starter: The chef stirred the ____

Without context: _____

With context (In an art class): _____

6. Starter: The man was running to the ____

Without context: _____

With context (In a news article about politics): _____

7. Starter: The scientist looked through the ____

Without context: _____

With context (In a pirate story): _____

8. Starter: The woman opened her ____

Without context: _____

With context (On a camping trip): _____