

Rights Rewritten Answer Key

Sample Simplified Versions

1. Everyone is born free and deserves to be treated equally and kindly.
2. Every person has the right to live freely and be safe from harm.
3. Everyone can think and believe what they want, and even change their religion.
4. Everyone can share their opinions and speak their mind respectfully.
5. Everyone should have access to education that helps them grow and reach their full potential.

Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - Provide a glossary of key terms like dignity, liberty, and conscience for struggling readers.
 - For advanced learners, assign additional UDHR articles for independent rewriting.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Begin with a "Decode This!" warm-up-students simplify a tricky sentence from everyday laws or school rules.
 - Have small groups act out one article in a short skit to bring it to life.
- Extension Activities:
 - Students create illustrated posters showing their favorite rewritten article.
 - Encourage learners to write a short reflection titled "My Right That Matters Most."