

Name _____

Words of Justice

Directions: Read each famous quote about human rights. Then, write a short reflection explaining what you think the quote means and how it connects to our world today. Use complete sentences and your own words.

1. "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." - Martin Luther King Jr.

What this means to me: _____

How it matters today: _____

2. "To deny people their human rights is to challenge their very humanity." - Nelson Mandela

What this means to me: _____

How it matters today: _____

3. "Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home." - Eleanor Roosevelt

What this means to me: _____

How it matters today: _____

4. "The rights of every man are diminished when the rights of one man are threatened." - John F. Kennedy

What this means to me: _____

How it matters today: _____

5. "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." - Nelson Mandela

What this means to me: _____

How it matters today: _____