Fair Play Fixes

Directions: Read each short scenario about unfair treatment. Then, write how you would respond to make the situation fair and respectful for everyone involved. Use complete sentences and kind, thoughtful reasoning.

Scenario 1: During a group project, Maya's ideas are ignored while the others only listen to the boys in her group. She feels frustrated but doesn't want to start an argument. How would you respond to make this fair?

Scenario 2: At lunch, a new student is sitting alone because others think his accent sounds "different." A few classmates even make jokes. How would you respond to make this fair?

Scenario 3: Your school's sports team only lets boys join, even though several girls want to play and are just as skilled. How would you respond to make this fair?

Scenario 4: A teacher gives extra help to students she already knows well but doesn't notice others who are struggling quietly. How would you respond to make this fair?

Scenario 5: Someone online posts hurtful comments about another person's religion. You see it but aren't sure whether to get involved. How would you respond to make this fair?
