Field Trip Mix-Up

Directions: Read the story below. It has several mistakes using I and me. Rewrite the story correctly using the right pronouns.

Yesterday, my teacher asked me and Ben if me wanted to help carry the field trip supplies. Me said yes, but Ben told I to wait until he grabbed his jacket. When we reached the bus, the driver thanked I for helping. During the ride, Ben and me sat near the front so me could take pictures of the animals at the zoo. Our guide told I about a baby giraffe born last week, and me was so excited to see it. After lunch, my teacher gave I a sticker for being such a good helper.
