Directions: Each passage below is labeled with the structure it should use, but the passage is written in the wrong structure. Rewrite it so that it fits the intended structure.

1. Cause/Effect - "Apples come in many colors, including red, green, and yellow.

They are crisp and sweet when eaten fresh."

2. Compare/Contrast - "Yesterday, Maya got up at 7 a.m. She ate breakfast, went to school, and finished her homework in the evening."

3. Chronological - "Recycling helps the environment by reducing waste. As a result, landfills don't fill up as quickly."

4. Problem/Solution - "The beach is sunny, warm, and covered with golden sand. Waves crash against the shore as seagulls fly overhead."

5. Description - "The storm knocked down a tree, and it crushed the roof of a car. Because of the damage, the road was closed."
