

Name _____

Scenario to Saying

Directions: Read each scenario carefully. Then, choose the idiom from the list that best describes the situation. Write the letter of the correct idiom on the line. Each idiom will be used only once.

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| A. break the ice | E. piece of cake | I. burn the midnight oil |
| B. spill the beans | F. cry over spilled milk | J. cost an arm and a leg |
| C. under the weather | G. hit the sack | |
| D. hit the nail on the head | H. once in a blue moon | |

1. ____ During a class debate, Rachel gave an explanation that was exactly right and impressed the teacher.
2. ____ The new phone was so expensive that Ben joked he might have to sell his arm to pay for it.
3. ____ The science quiz was so easy that Alex finished it in five minutes without mistakes.
4. ____ Mia stayed home from school with soup and tissues because she wasn't feeling well.
5. ____ Emily was very nervous at the new club, but telling a joke helped her feel comfortable with everyone.
6. ____ Kevin worked on his essay until 2 a.m. so he could finish it before the deadline.
7. ____ The vase broke, and Noah kept complaining, even though nothing could fix it now.
8. ____ After a long day at work, Maria brushed her teeth and went straight to bed.
9. ____ Jason accidentally told his sister about the surprise party their parents were planning.
10. ____ My grandparents don't travel much, but sometimes, very rarely, they go on a cruise.