

Name _____

Idiom Fill-Ins

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Use the idiom word bank to complete each blank with the correct idiom. Each idiom will be used only once. Write your answers on the line provided.

break the ice	a blessing in disguise	burn the midnight oil
hit the nail on the head	hit the sack	piece of cake
cry over spilled milk	once in a blue moon	costs an arm and a leg
	under the weather

1. Jenna was nervous about starting her new job, but her manager told a funny story to _____.
2. I stayed up all night studying for the exam, so I'll probably have to _____ early tonight.
3. Don't worry about the mistake; there's no use to _____.
4. The soccer coach said my comment about teamwork really _____.
5. Their family vacation to Europe was exciting, but it _____.
6. We rarely eat out at fancy restaurants, only _____.
7. Solving that math problem was a _____ for Lisa—she finished it in seconds.
8. I've been feeling a little _____, so I think I'll rest today.
9. Even though losing the job felt terrible, it turned out to be _____ when I found a better one.
10. The project deadline is tomorrow, so we'll have to _____ tonight to finish it.