

Name _____

Indefinite Fill-Ins

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Insert the correct indefinite pronoun (such as anyone, everyone, something, nobody, someone, anything, everything, none, each, all, few, many, several) into the blank to make the sentence meaningful and grammatically correct. Be sure the choice matches the context of the sentence.

1. _____ left their backpack in the classroom after recess.
2. Is there _____ at the door, or did I imagine knocking?
3. We searched the whole park, but we didn't find _____.
4. _____ knows the answer to that riddle; it's a tricky one!
5. I have _____ to tell you, but it's a secret.
6. There were _____ cookies left after the party, so we saved them for later.
7. _____ in the group agreed that the trip was a success.
8. The teacher asked if _____ had finished the assignment early.
9. I saw _____ hiding behind the tree, but I couldn't tell who it was.
10. There was _____ unusual about the noise we heard.
11. We expected many guests, but _____ showed up.
12. The principal reminded us that rules apply to _____.
13. Can _____ help me carry these heavy boxes?
14. The library had _____ of the books I needed for my report.
15. After the storm, _____ of the houses on the street had broken windows.