

Name _____

Talk with Indefinites

Directions: Read each short conversation. Fill in the blanks with the most fitting indefinite pronoun (such as someone, anyone, everyone, nobody, somebody, anything, everything, something, each, few, several, many, none, all, much). Make sure your choice makes sense in context.

1. Liam: Did _____ call me while I was outside?
Sofia: Yes, _____ left a message on your desk.
2. Teacher: Has _____ seen my red marker?
Student: No, _____ has seen it since yesterday.
3. Emma: I'm bored. There's _____ fun to do today.
Noah: Don't worry, we'll think of _____ together.
4. Parent: Did you eat _____ from the cookie jar?
Child: No! I didn't eat _____.
5. Coach: _____ needs to bring water bottles for the game tomorrow.
Players: Don't worry, coach, _____ will bring one.
6. Mia: How many kids joined the new club?
Ethan: Only a _____, but the teacher said more might join later.
7. Grandpa: I looked in the shed, but I found _____ useful.
Grandchild: Maybe _____ moved the tools to the garage.
8. Ava: Did _____ come to the meeting on time?
Oliver: No, _____ was late!

