

Name _____

Best Fit Indefinites

Directions: Each sentence is missing an indefinite pronoun. Choose the one option that makes the sentence most logical in meaning and grammar. Write the correct letter of the pronoun on the line.

1. _____ left their shoes in the hallway, and now the custodian has to move them.
(A) Everyone (B) Anything (C) Nothing (D) Someone
2. We looked inside the box, but there was _____ worth keeping.
(A) something (B) anybody (C) nothing (D) everyone
3. The teacher reminded us that _____ must turn in their essays by Friday.
(A) everyone (B) nobody (C) nothing (D) someone
4. I searched my locker, but I couldn't find _____.
(A) anything (B) somebody (C) everyone (D) many
5. _____ in the audience clapped loudly after the performance.
(A) Few (B) None (C) Everybody (D) Nothing
6. At lunch, Mia shared her sandwich with _____ who forgot theirs.
(A) anybody (B) nothing (C) nobody (D) something
7. _____ of the cookies were left after the party—they were all eaten!
(A) Some (B) None (C) Many (D) All
8. The science teacher gave extra credit to _____ who completed the optional project.
(A) several (B) anyone (C) nothing (D) nobody
9. _____ of the books on the shelf is missing; we need to check the library again.
(A) Few (B) All (C) Nothing (D) Each
10. The coach explained that _____ could try out for the soccer team, not just the experienced players.
(A) anyone (B) somebody (C) nothing (D) few