Values in Contrast Answer Key

1. Amira's values/beliefs:
    - She believes in motivating people through inspiration, creativity, and positive encouragement. She values excitement and community participation.
2. Daniel's values/beliefs:
    - He believes in structure, discipline, and rules. He values accountability and consequences to ensure responsibility.
3. Differences in perspectives:
    - Amira focuses on inspiration and positivity to change behavior, while Daniel focuses on rules and enforcement to ensure compliance.
4. Which approach works better (student responses may vary):
    - Either answer can be correct if supported with reasoning. For example:
        - Amira's approach may build long-term commitment and enthusiasm.
        - Daniel's approach may ensure faster results through accountability.

Teacher Note:

Encourage students to see that characters' words and actions reflect deeper values and beliefs. Inference here involves asking, "What does this choice say about what the character cares about?" Multiple answers may be valid if supported with textual evidence.
