Sounds Of Freedom

Directions: Read the passage below about Juneteenth. Then, find and label each example of simile, metaphor, or personification. Afterward, explain what each figure of speech means in your own words.

The morning sun stretched its golden arms across Galveston, waking a new day of freedom. Voices rose like a mighty river, flowing through streets that once echoed with silence. Hope stood tall, unbroken, as drums of celebration thundered in the hearts of the people. The air shimmered with laughter, and even the wind seemed to sing. Freedom was no longer a dream hidden in the distance; it was a flame burning bright, lighting the path forward.
